The session will introduce a simple model to improve business relationships and business results, a process which could turn into a valuable business opportunity! George Derbyshire and Heather Butler-Smith This workshop will introduce you to techniques which will improve your effectiveness with your clients. We all recognise that business advisers, coaches and trainers need constantly to review and update their personal effectiveness when working with clients. "Working with Clarity" will introduce you to a simple model which will help you understand your own preferred style, identify that of others and then how to connect with clients so as to improve both your relationships and your results. But it is more than a self-improvement tool. We have developed this concept into an ACT service for our members and we will show you how it can be an income-generating product to add to your portfolio. Simple and cost-effective, you will enjoy "Working with Clarity" at IEPC and we will gladly discuss with you how you can commercially exploit this service. ACT is the membership organisation for business support professionals. George Derbyshire and Heather Butler-Smith look forward to welcoming IEPC delegates (including non members of ACT) to this workshop.
